PLEAS OF GUILLY.

May 10.—Grand Larcary.—George Thempson pleaded guilty to steeling 3500 from William Mardoch. The prisoner being caught in the act, and there being no hope for him, he acted somewhat prudently in pleading guilty to the charge. Thompson was remanded for sentence, in order to give him an opportunity of presenting affidarits in mitigation of punishment.

Petil Larcary.—A respectable looking young man mamed Sidney Smith, pleaded guilty to stealing a small quantity of chloroform and some spenges, the property of Pr. Unserhill, in all valued at 56. An excellent character for sobriety and former honesty being given him by his employer and many of his friends, the Coart thought proper to suspend judgment, and accordingly the prisoner was set at liberty, after reasiving a healthful reprimand from his Honor Judge Beebe.

Highway Robbery.—Severs Senience.—John Macready was then placed at the bar charged with having, in company with a confederate not yet arrested, attacked and robbed a man mamed Thomas Rouch, who testified that ha April last, while he was in Crown's grocery story, at the corner of Little Water and Anthony street, he was enticed down a dark alley way, where two men pounced upon him, threw him down and nearly choked him, and that while he was lying on the ground, Macready put his hand in complainant's pocket, and abstracted all the money he had in his possession, amounting in all to 44, in hank bills and silver change. Mr. Rouch identified the prisoner and swore positively that he was the man who robbed him. A witness was brought forward to preve that the prisoner had been in the State prison on several occasions.

The jury in this case, after duly considering the evidence, rendered a verdict of guilty.

preve that the prisoner had been in the State prison on several occasions.

The jury in this case, after duly considering the evidence, rendered a verdict of guilty.

The Court then sentenced the prisoner to twelve years confinement in the State prison.

ACQUITTED.

Grand Larceny.—Ernest how was tried and acquitted of having stoken exhiteen pairs of shoes any boots, valued at $40, from Mr. Quackenbush, doing business in Greenwich street. The boots, which were found in his room, in a house in Orange street, had been placed there by a noted thier, now suffering for a similar effects in the State prison. Under these circumstances, the Jury acquitted the prisoner, believing that the property was stolen by the individual now in the State prison, and placed in the defendant's room for secretion.

Grand Larceny.—Philip Weitz was then placed at the bar, charged with having stolen $2,000 from his nucle, Lewis Bursewold, who entrusted the money to him while he was absent in California. The case was not concluded when the Court adjourned.

hats that a friend of ours, who prides himself on bis 'cutemess, centends that he can tell one of Knox's make from any other hat made or sold in the city. Last Thursday we made a triling wager with him, for the purpose of testing his ability is that regard, and taking our stand opposite the ruins of the late first in Broadway, he commenced scrutinising the chapeaus of the passers-by. We had not been there half a minute before our friend pointed out a dosen hats which he pronounced to be of Knox's manufacture; but, for the purpose of removing all doubt from our mind, he detarmines to hall one of the gentlemen, and sak him to sakisfy our creculity. He did so; the gentlemen raised his hat, and in it, sure enough, we read the name of "KNOX, Nox, Sib Breadway and 225 Fulton street," as large as life and twice as natural. We gave in, of course.
